

Code of Conduct

All participants enrolled in any program at the Lake George Club (LGC) will conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on themselves as individuals as well as participants in the LGC program.

To register in the LGC's junior program as a participant, I agree to adhere to the following Code of Conduct:

- I will display at all times, a positive, respectful and supportive attitude towards the program, my coaches and staff.
- I will refrain from any activity that would detract from a positive image of the program.
- I will listen and pay attention during program instruction, and I will stay with any class in which I am enrolled unless given permission to leave by an instructor or parent/guardian.
- I will not use alcohol, tobacco or illegal drugs when at the LGC or while participating in any of the activities and programs at the LGC or in any location where I am representing the LGC.
- I will not litter on land or in the water.
- I will do my best to participate in all programs and extracurricular activities while at the LGC with energy and enthusiasm but never in a reckless and dangerous manner. I will pay special attention to adhere to safety measures while swimming and sailing on the lake.
- I will practice good sportsmanship.
- I will not run in the clubhouse nor will I eat in areas not designated by club rules. I will utilize only those areas of the clubhouse and grounds where I am authorized to be, and I will be respectful of all club and private property at all times.
- I will adhere to the LGC's rule that all participants in any of the LGC's programs are prohibited from all instructor housing on the property.
- I will wear proper attire (particularly footwear) in the clubhouse at all times.
- I will refrain from any use of profanity.
- I will not engage in "horseplay" that could cause harm to myself or others.
- I will make restitution for any damages incurred due to any misconduct on my part while participating in the programs.
- I will not BULLY others nor will I participate in or support any behavior bullying others.

As a program participant, I understand that my conduct will be subject to all rules and regulations of the LGC. I will keep in mind that my participation in any of the programs or extracurricular events/activities under the auspices of the LGC is a PRIVILEGE! Violations of this Code of Conduct could result in my suspension from the program or my registration in the program for the following year be refused.
